

Aisling

Aisling gets sent across the water to stay with her mother's family. It is supposed to be safer there than at home in her beloved Scotland with her parents. Aisling goes to a local fair with her cousin Cynia and the girls are enjoying the day when things suddenly go terribly wrong. Her courage is tested when the safety of her new surroundings comes into question.

She started off as a Facebook page by friends Sarah Breen and Emer McLysaght. It turned out everybody knows an Aisling, or is an Aisling. Aisling is an Irish female name from the Irish-Gaelic word aislinge meaning dream, vision.
