

Meena Alexander's imagination thrives in the active cross-fertilization of cultures and genres. In this new collection we are privy to the full and variegated display of her poetry.

-Marilyn Chin The river and bridge are ultimately the same. Just as New York City and Delhi merge in the body and imagination of a woman making poetry near the end of an age, Meena Alexander eloquently leads to the conclusion of this fine collection with : There is no grief like this / the origin of landscape is mercy. These poems are the journey we take with her to know this, utterly. - Joy Harjo Meena Alexander is one of the finest Indian poets writing today. - Keki N. Daruwalla The next time someone suggests poetry cannot honestly deal with the real news of the world I will raise the name of Meena Alexander and this fine book like a flag - or a prayer. - Cornelius Eady
