

Off the Road: My Years With Cassady, Kerouac, and Ginsberg

This is Carolyn Cassadys story of her life at the centre of the beat generation. In 1948, at the age of 25, she married Neal Cassady. Less than ten years after their marriage, he had become a living legend, his wild spirit immortalized in the character of Dean Moriarty, the heroic traveller in Jack Kerouacs On The Road. Carolyn Cassady reveals how she had to compete for Neals attention with his friends and lovers. Their marriage at first alienated poet Allen Ginsberg, who wanted Neal to himself. Even after the civil ceremony, Neal continued to see and test other women.
