

Aethersmith (Twinborn Trilogy Book 2)

Being twinborn can make you paranoid. Being paranoid can keep you alive. Kyrus is marooned on a remote island, with no rescue in sight. Though the local population is friendly, all he wants it to return home to Scar Harbor and reunite with Abbiley. With the vast Katamic Sea standing in his way, Kyrus turns to his newfound magical powers to deliver himself back to civilization. But his power is increasing faster than his control. Not everyone is eager to see him go. Even if he is able to master the difficult transference spell, sabotage might keep him from making a successful attempt to return home. Brannis has a war to plan. Thrust into the unlikely position of being a warlocks only trusted adviser, the task of planning the empires defense falls to him. But with an army massing on the borders, a greater threat may lie right in the capitol city. Upheaval has made a welcome cover for conspiracies, and as the warlocks pawn, Brannis stands before the bullseye. Soria Coinblade is twinborn. Shes also a brutal mercenary, trained in both magic and hand to hand combat. No one in the other world knows her twins secret, but she has a unique solution to an age old problem. To escape an arranged marriage in one world, shes seeking the twin of the man shed rather spend her life with. Shes willing to do whatever it takes to make that happen, even if it leaves a trail of bodies.
