Excerpt from The Memorial of the State of England: In Vindication of the Queen, the Church, and the Administration; Design'd to Rectify the Mutual Mistakes of Protestants, and to Unite Their Affection in Defence of Our Religion and Liberty

Care has been taken therefore in the Short Compass of the following Sheets, to set these Things in a fair Light, and to dispel those Mists in which by Art or Chance they were involvd; yet no where so industriously confounded as by the Sophistry and Illusions of the Memorial of the Church of England, whereof the Pages and Passages are quoted out of the Second Edition corrected in Octavo, but exactly compar'd with the First in Quarto, which did not come into so many as the other.
