

Sometimes a bit of magical help might cost more than you bargained for ... London is hosting the Carnival Fantastique, and Gennys job has never been busier or more fulfilling. Only not everyone is so happy. Genny believed shed cracked the faes infertility curse ... but the fae are still barren. Its a devastating plight to which the mysterious Emperor may have the solution - if Genny can find him. She needs help. She turns to the vampire Malik al-Khan, only to find hes wrestling with his own demons and, when the police request Gennys assistance with a magical kidnap, her own problems multiply too. Is it all unconnected, or can the Emperor help her solve more than the faes infertility? Soon Genny is hard on his trail, so it seems shell have a chance to ask ... but will the answer cost more than shes willing to pay?
