Selene and Cheney are almost to happily ever after. Just one small promise stands in their way. The spirits make a request Selene cant refuse without forfeiting her soul, but to fulfill their desire she will have to sacrifice her life. Traveling to a world beyond the reach of the living, Selene has to dig deep within herself to find a way back home. The kingdom trembles on the edge of political upheaval, and fae of all shapes and sizes are being murdered. The further Cheney digs into these mysterious deaths, the more skeletons he unearths from his familys past. Sometimes the truth can kill you. In a race against the clock, Selene and Cheney stumble through an emotional and physical journey to make it back to one another. Will they find a way back to one another, or are not all love stories meant to have a happily ever after?
