

Solar (Maki) (Volume 2)

Maki has spent three years on the run from the Sorceress and her SOLAR operatives. She has left her past behind completely, keeping the nickname Agent Wei gave her as the only way to identify herself. With little cash left to live on and SOLAR seeming to be closing in on her she needs to find a safe place to reside. Looking for her first decent meal in a long while Maki meets Mr. Chen, an old man running a noodle shop in the outskirts of the main city. It seems safe there and Maki finally finds someone she can trust for the first time in over a year. While hiding out in the outskirts she meets Jian, a boy her age who is the most serious person she has ever met, and Qiang, Jians cousin and a Trainer.

By them she is taught how to defend herself with more than just her powers. When it seems that Maki has finally found a place to call home a man named Jin comes along and shakes up her world, throwing her life back into chaos. Many secrets surround him yet Maki cant help but find herself attracted to him. Has she finally met her downfall in this man who claims to be her soul mate?
